iCandy's New Game Rocky Rampage Receives 450,000 Pre-Registrations

iCandy Interactive Limited (ASX:ICI) ("iCandy", the "Company") is pleased to announce that its new game, Rocky Rampage: Wreck 'em up! (previously known as Wonderpants) has received 450,000 pre-registrations in anticipation of its official global launch on 9th April 2020.

Rocky Rampage is a casual action game where gamers play as Boulder Cobblestone on his quest to take back the stolen Wonderpants piece by piece. As Boulder, players will smash and destroy almost everything in his path to reclaim his lost fashion.

Rocky Rampage was developed in-house by iCandy's Indonesian studio, Joyseed, and is currently available for pre-registration on Android or iOS. Rocky Rampage is one of the four new in-house developed major games that iCandy plans to launch this year.

Management Commentary

iCandy Chairman Kin W. Lau commented:

"We are thrilled with the encouraging number of pre-registrations received ahead of the official launch of Rocky Rampage in April. The Joyseed team has done an amazing job developing Rocky Rampage which boasts stunning visuals and easy one-tap game play mechanics.

"Looking ahead, 2020 is shaping up to be a very exciting year for iCandy and for the first time in our history we will be launching four major in-house developed games all within the same calendar year.

"We are off to a fantastic start this year and I look forward to providing regular updates on additional game developments in due course."

Pre-registrations received to date have not taken advantage of iCandy's capability to promote new game titles to its existing gamer community of 350 million gamers worldwide. The number of downloads and gamers taking on Rocky Rampage at its global launch are expected to trend higher once iCandy starts to introduce this new game to its gamer community.
